To help the government fight the funding of terrorism and money laundering, federal law requires all financial institutions to obtain, verify, and record information that identifies each person who enters into financing agreement. Accordingly, we may ask for verifying documents and personal information such as your: federal tax ID number, date of birth, and address.

Equal Credit Opportunity Act. The equal credit opportunity act (ECOA) prohibits credit grantors from discriminating against credit applicants on the basis of race, color, religion, national origin, sex, marital status or age. The federal trade commission administers compliance with the ECOA.
